Who is an Innovator?

Innovators are drawn to novelty and possibility. They enjoy questioning assumptions, reframing problems, and imagining alternatives. Stability can feel constraining; change feels energizing.

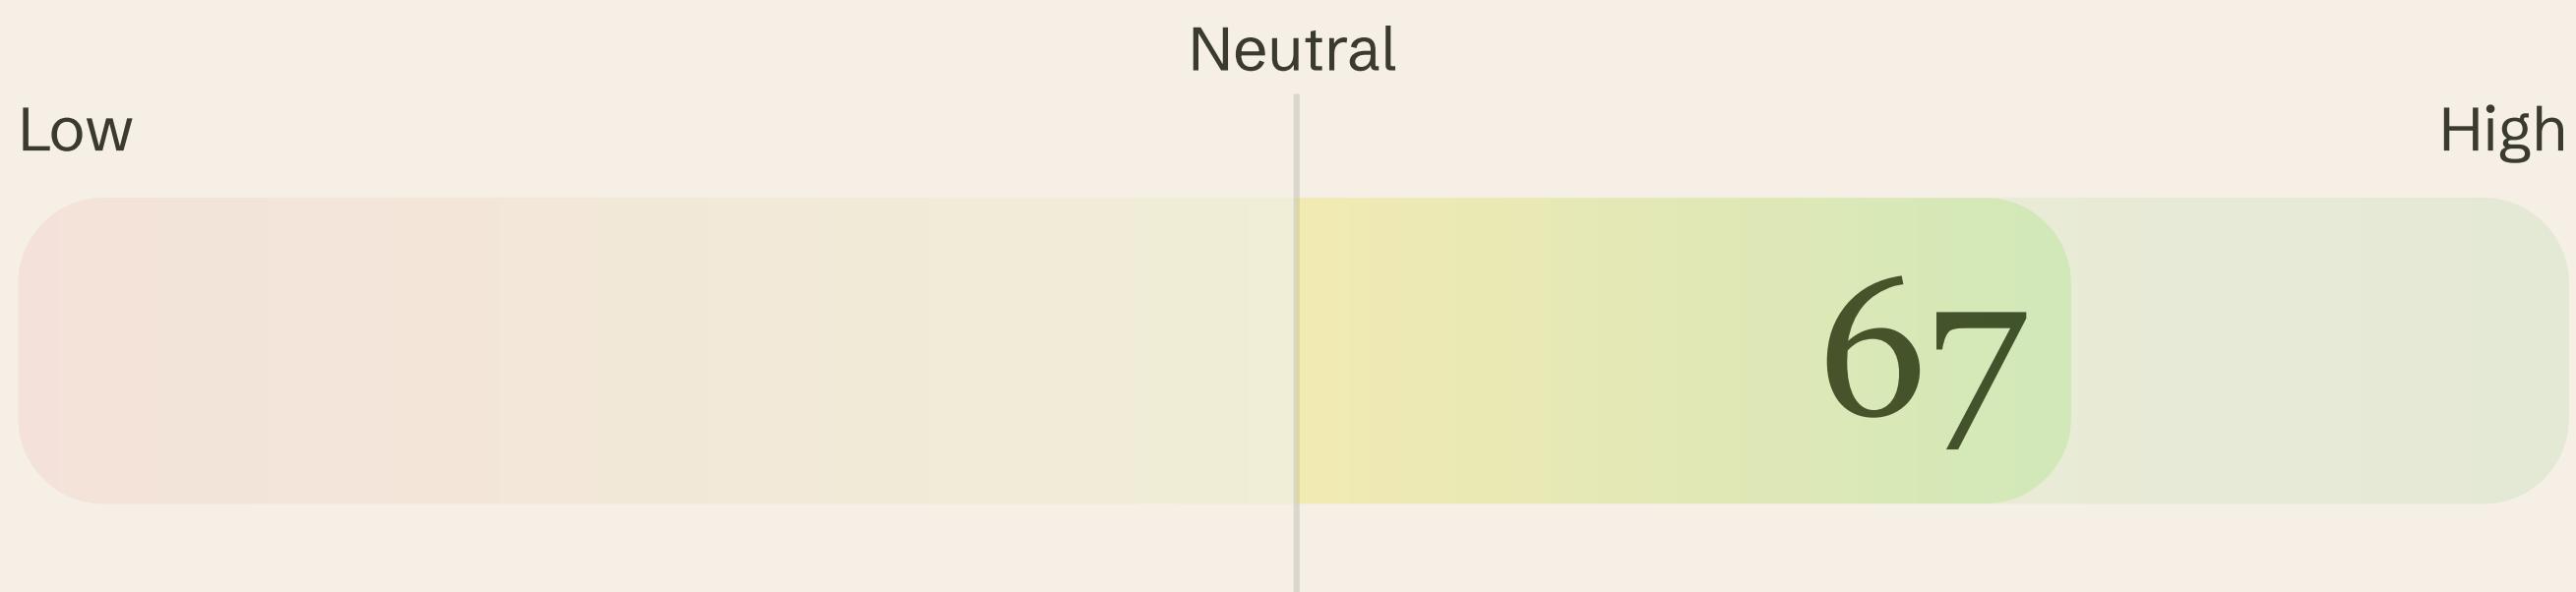

You Feel Most Like You When...

You are generating new approaches, experimenting, or proposing ideas that others have not considered.

Core Drive

To explore new ideas and challenge the status quo.

Role Alignment

Understanding Your High Role Alignment

You are comfortable with ambiguity and risk. You may grow bored with repetition or maintenance and prefer environments that reward creativity.
